WHAT A VICTIM ADVOCATE CAN DO FOR YOU:

1. Provide military and community referrals
2. Provide emotional support
3. Provide crisis intervention
4. Assist you in securing information on the status of your case
5. Help you develop a safety plan
6. Assist you in advocating for your rights

Safety Plan:
In planning for your safety, always choose the safest option.

Whether you choose to stay or leave, the USMC intervention manual on Coordinated Community Response to spouse Abuse suggest consideration of the following:

1. Tell someone trustworthy of the abuse.
2. Make a list of or memorize emergency numbers.
3. If injured, go to the nearest hospital and tell someone.
4. Document injuries and threats.
5. Keep a second set of house and car keys in a secure location.
6. Keep important papers and supplies together in a safe accessible place; if necessary, obtain a military Protection Order or Restraining Order.
